Gov. Pickens's Message.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The day for your annual meeting is so near at hand that I should not have invoked you again in extra session, but for what I deem a pressing emergency admitting of no delay.

The progress of the war for the last few months has not been favorable to our arms. The brilliant repulse of the enemy's ironclad fleet on the 7th of April last in Charleston harbor, has been succeeded by the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson; our retirement from Pennsylvania, Maryland and Tennessee, and also by our evacuation of Morris Island, and not without a stubborn resistance by the brave garrisons of Wagner and Gregg, under a fire from naval and land batteries such as no works have ever before withstood. Fort Sumter still holds out with an infantry garrison which has recently achieved a brilliant success. Her noble reinforcements the best proofs of the indomitable courage of the officers and men of the first South Carolina Artillery. Our malignant foe is now erecting on Morris Island powerful batteries of Parrott guns, and repairing his damaged fleet, preparatory to another and more determined attack upon our harbor outposts, whilst his land forces are being increased with the hope, possibly, of carrying Charleston in a combined attack by land and sea. The call of the President for five thousand troops for six months' service within the State, beginning the first of August last, has been promptly responded to, with the exception of five companies, now in process of organization. This requisition and the enforcement of the Conscription Act to forty-five, embracing almost the entire population between the ages of forty and fifty, so impairs the efficiency of our militia organization that I find it impracticable to obtain readily a force adequate to such emergencies as soon likely now soon to be upon us. To meet these emergencies I have endeavored, under your late Act and the Act of 1861, to raise a volunteer force of one mounted regiment, two companies of cavalry, and one battery of artillery, for service wherever in the State they may be needed. This force has not been so promptly raised as the occasion requires, and I have therefore felt it my duty to again convene your bodies, and to recommend to you that you, dearest such plan, as in your wisdom may seem expedient, for furnishing for immediate service a military force of at least two regiments of infantry, one of which should be mounted, and a proportionate force of cavalry and artillery. Also, that the law be so amended as to place in arms military organizations, for the defense of the State, every able bodied citizen between the ages of sixteen and sixty, not in Confederate service or otherwise legally exempted. The numerous danger to be apprehended arises from raiding parties of the enemy, who may dash suddenly into the State from Tennessee, through upper Georgia, or the passes of the mountains of North and South Carolina. Should the enemy in large force attempt invasion from these sections, the Confederate Government will, no doubt, afford adequate protection. But to repel raids and to protect our firelocks, the State itself should make preparation. The persons to compose the organizations should be the able-bodied citizens between sixteen and sixty years of age, not in Confederate service or otherwise legally exempted; and in this class should be embraced all persons who have procured exemptions by furnishing substitutes. No one should be relieved from the duty of defending his home because of having a substitute for the war for Confederate service. A law which has declared their purpose to become citizens, as also such as are domiciled amongst us, enjoying the protection of our laws, should be included. I recommend, also, that the class of those whose service is limited to the district or regiment in which they reside, be reduced to the lowest practicable point consistent with the safe policy of the State. I call your attention to the Report of the Adjutant-General upon this subject, herewith transmitted.

In connection with the subject of exemptions, I call your attention to my correspondence with the Commandant of Conscripts for South Carolina, Major C. D. Melton, who is the successor of Col. John S. Preston, with whom, previous to your last extra session, I had a correspondence, a copy of which was then transmitted to you. Another copy, as also a copy of that with Maj. Melton, is now transmitted. This subject calls for legislation so as to reconcile as far as possible the difference between the laws of the two governments. It is an important question involving the jurisdiction of the two governments, and needs to be delicately handled. I am satisfied our true policy is, as far as is compatible with the constitutional rights of the State, to conform to the law of Congress on this subject. I have not felt at liberty to make any distinction between the cases exempted by our law when the cases have been made, but have claimed the exemption of all alike. The action of the Executive Council, on the same subject, and the action of your two Houses, at your last session (the House approving and the Senate by its silence acquiescing) made it proper that I should reply to Maj. Melton as I had done to Col. Preston.

Additional legislation is needed to enable the Executive, through civil or military authority, or both, more effectively to aid the Confederate Government in arresting deserters from the army. In most cases the absentees have probably not left their commands with the intent to desert their colors; but the result of their absence is the same, so far as the good of the service and protection of the country is concerned. I have endeavored, so far as I was authorized, to afford assistance, but the law is inadequate to such efficient aid as is needed. Many contraband have not on this subject to mean that the Sheriff is not to render aid to the Enrolling Officer (filling out his name) has been made. In all such cases the deserter, of course, makes his escape. Such law as you may think proper to pass should embrace deserters from State service, and should also punish aiding and abetting deserters in escaping from the army, and in resisting or evading arrest.

I invite your attention to the operation of the system of imprisonment, adopted by the Confederate Government. I am informed that in some sections, where the people have little more than is absolutely necessary for their own use, it is apprehended that destitution will be brought about by its unequal operation. Coming as you do from every section of the State, you are doubtless better informed upon this subject than myself, and better prepared to adopt a judicious policy that I am now to suggest. I have called the attention of the Confederate Government to the subject and suggested to them the probability that the collection of the tax in kind, which operates more equally on all, would obviate the necessity for the imprisonment of provision.

The system adopted for furnishing labor for the Confederate Government has failed to accomplish its purpose. Large numbers have availed themselves of the provision of the law and paid the fine of one dollar and fifty cents instead of furnishing the labor; and others, with the hope of impunity, have neither furnished the labor nor paid the fine. With the money collected by the agent he has been unable to hire any labor. I recommend an amendment of the Acts on this subject, so as to abolish the fine and so as to authorize the Governor, through the Commissioners of Roads, (who in the main are true to their trusts,) to impress the labor requisite to enable him to respond to the calls of the Commanding General, giving credit for all labor previously furnished, and that the time of service be extended to two months. The free negroes should be included. I doubt not that there has been cause for the complaint heretofore made as to the treatment and detention of the negroes, but it is believed that through the insincerity of the energetic State Agent, (who has reported heretofore transmitted) many of the evils have been remedied.

S. C. Soldiers Assembled in Public Meeting.

From the Southern Guardian.

CAMP, FIRST S. C. CAVALRY, COLUMBIA COUNTY, VA., Sept. 7, 1863.

A meeting of the 1st S. C. Cavalry, Hampton's Brigade, was held at their camp this evening, to consider a movement made at Enterprise, Mississippi, by the Enterprise Confederate Society, whose address to the people of the Confederate States has been recently published in the Richmond Whig, and to select some mode of expressing themselves on the great danger that threatens our Confederacy from within, from the spirit of speculation and extortion that prevails to such an alarming extent throughout the country.

On motion of Lieutenant T. W. Miller, of Edgefield, Lieutenant Colonel J. D. Twigg was called to the chair, and W. A. Padin, of Chester, to act as Secretary.

Two Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a few appropriate remarks, and declared the meeting ready for business.

On motion of Captain T. W. Whitley, a committee of twenty-one was appointed to prepare business for the meeting.

The following gentlemen were appointed, viz:

Captain L. J. Johnson, Co. G, Abbeville District, S. C.; Dr. H. Drennon, Co. G, Abbeville District, S. C.; Lieutenant H. S. Jones, Co. A, Abbeville District, S. C.; J. H. Power, Co. A, Abbeville District, S. C.; Captain J. D. Trezvant, Co. E, Orangeburg District, S. C.; D. O. Tindall, Co. E, Orangeburg District, S. C.; Capt. N. Nesbit, Co. B, Spartanburg District, S. C.; Corporal J. Bell, Co. B, Spartanburg District, S. C.; Captain R. W. Whitley, Co. C, Edgefield District, S. C.; Sergeant B. P. Toole, Co. C, Edgefield District, S. C.; Lieutenant J. T. Clayton, Co. F, Pickens District, S. C.; R. S. Ward, Co. F, Pickens District, S. C.; Lieutenant J. W. White, Co. H, York District, S. C.; J. L. Edwards, Co. H, Chester District, S. C.; Lieutenant F. Horsey, Co. I, Charleston District, S. C.; Corporal J. B. Tennant, Co. I, Charleston District, S. C.; Lieutenant R. S. Lewis, Co. D, Chester District, S. C.; W. D. Clisholm, Co. D, Chester District, S. C.; Lieutenant T. W. Holly, Co. K, Chester District, S. C.; B. Foreman, Co. K, Barnwell District, S. C.; Sergeant S. C. Sams, Beaufort District, S. C.

On motion of Captain Johnson, Lieutenant Colonel Twigg was added as Chairman of the Committee.

The Committee retired, and after deliberating a few minutes, reported the following resolutions and resolutions:

Whereas, an address has been published in the public prints to the people of the Confederate States, from the Enterprise Mississippi Confederate Society, proposing a plan for a campaign against the army of Speculators and Extortioners that are striking at the heart of our country, we, as citizens, and especially as soldiers, bear the movement with joy, as being the means whereby those of our comrades who have shouldered the burden and heat of the day thus far uncomplainingly, but are now rendered discontented by the sufferings of their families from the ravages of the ruthless and unscrupulous enemy, may have some assurance that they and theirs are not forgotten. And we feel it incumbent on us to lend our aid in this great work by a hearty support, and by bringing it to the notice of our patriot friends and fellow laborers by the holy cause of National Independence, whose privilege it is to remain in the enjoyment of the blessings and comforts of home.

Resolved, That we recommend to our friends at home this subject for their immediate and earnest consideration, as the only remedy for the disease that is gnawing at our national vitals, and threatening our national existence.

Resolved, That we appeal to them to meet this great and growing evil by an immediate application of this remedy. We call upon all those at home who appreciate the glorious cause in which we are engaged to unite at once and fight this good fight for our wives, our mothers, our sisters and daughters; and while we are engaged in the more arduous duties of the field, we look to those at home to perform their part in the cause in which we are engaged that we may emerge from this struggle with untarnished honor and become, by the blessing of the Almighty Father, a happy and prosperous people.

Resolved, That we will unite with our friends and neighbors, at our respective homes, in the effort to organize similar societies in every neighborhood.

Resolved, That we appeal particularly to our prominent and leading citizens, farmers, manufacturers, merchants, mechanics, railroad and other transportation companies, as well as all those who are in any way engaged in supplying the means and conveniences of life, to arm themselves in this humane and necessary measure, to enroll themselves under this righteous banner, and by simultaneous effort free our beloved South from her most deadly enemy. Let the cry be, away with speculation and extortion. Let him be accused who fattens on the blood of our country.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the Governor of South Carolina, and that they be published in the Columbia, S. C. papers, and all papers in the State and Confederacy be requested to copy.

Several short addresses were called forth, when the preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

Free Negroes.

All the elements of strength which we possess ought, in this crisis, to be carefully gathered and made efficient and available. There is a place and a duty for every man—no place should be unfilled, no duty be unperformed.

It has more than once occurred to us that the class of free negroes—a very prosperous and contented class in this State—has not contributed their full part in the public defense. We have no doubt that many valuable laborers out of this class could be added to the number employed upon the fortifications, if judicious steps were taken to engage them. This is their country. They ought, if not to fight, at least to work for it, as well as others.

The subject has been suggested to us to-day by the following paragraph in a Sumter Watchman:

Thousands of free negroes are scattered over the land, from whom no public service is exacted. The water and the slave are both called into service; the one to fight, the other to labor; the free negro alone is left at home in idleness and ease, to enjoy this unthought exemption. This also is strange!

A lady passing along the street in Buffalo, noticed a little boy scattering sand upon the sidewalk, for the purpose of cleaning off the ice. "Well, I'm sure," said the lady, "that is real benevolent!" "No it ain't ma'am," replied the boy, "it's salt."

Lincoln the Permanent President of the North.—A gentleman of respectability, who formerly represented one of the Northern border counties in the Virginia Legislature, was recently arrested by Federal authority and taken to Washington. He was after a time liberated, and was by Lincoln's order conducted into his presence. The Northern President, asked him "how long did the Southern people think they would last?" The reply was, "They think it will last as long as I live. This is no time for elections!" These are nearly the exact words of the conversation as reported by good authority to the Richmond Dispatch.

Indelible Ink.—Green parchment says 12 of them, mass them, pour on water enough to cover them. Dry over a slow fire and do not boil them too much, add in a small piece of o-copras. This ink will not change color and cannot be washed out or rubbed out.

Fooling the Negroes.—A large accession was made to the negro regiments in process of organization in Washington on the 20th ult. The negro soldiers had invited their male acquaintances to a sort of picnic at their camp, at Anacostia Island. When the time for breaking up came, the females were sent home, but the males were positively detained as recruits.

Col. Peter G. Evans, of North Carolina, died in Washington city about ten days ago of a wound received at Middleburg. When the Yankees captured Col. Evans he begged that they would parole him and leave him at a house on the road until he got better; but they refused, saying that they would carry him to Washington if it killed him. He died there, and is another victim of Federal barbarity and inhumanity.

The following amusing call took place on Capital Square, a few days ago. A rough and patriotic soldier from our State was passing under the quare and met President Davis:

Soldier—Isn't this Jeff Davis?

Davis—Yes, sir; what do you want?

Soldier—I thought you was Davis—you look so much like a postage stamp.

Poisoned Balls.—The Yankee papers say that their armies are now engaged in the manufacture of a poisoned ball, which will prove a fatal extinguisher to rebellion whenever it strikes. It is a Mule ball in three parts—the point being of some hard metal, coated with a poisonous solution of copper. When the ball strikes, the three parts separate, and the poisoned point penetrating deeply beyond the collar and cup, which makes up the remainder of the ball, cannot be extracted, and will inflict an incurable wound, the copper coating producing gangrene in a few hours.
